OUR THANKS

—to the Alameda County Board of Supervisors, Oakland City Council, Oakland Chamber of Commerce, Oakland Park Board, William Penn Mott, Jr., and his most cooperative Rangers, the Oakland Police Department, for their generous backing.

—to friends who donated prize money and trophies: Messrs. and Mesdames George S. Daniels, William Maxfield, Charles L. Hall, Louis Albert, Sidney Chown, Gerald Gray, Dave Markovits, Joe Stern, Fred Bills, James A. Myers, G. Howard Robinson, Heber Brown, A. E. Wieslander, John Wyman, Jesse Nichols, Norman Ogilvie, Martin Murray, John Framp-ton, Mr. George Keffer, Economy By-Products Company, Mr. Cumberlich, Mr. Gil Aschom, Castro Valley Saddlery, Mr. Ralph Coffey, Oakland Mounted Police.

—for endless hours of work, turning her home into an office, giving up part of her vacation, Mrs. Noni Nichols, who did a marvelous job as Secretary of the Horse Show.

—to our excellent Judges, Mr. Kent Weaver, Mr. Roy Robinson, Mr. Jack Manners, for handling a difficult job efficiently.

—to Charles L. Hall, Ring Master, for handling all ring arrangements and keeping the show moving at a pace which has already brought many compliments; to Harry Peckham and Glenn Fisher, assistants.

—to Ed Zwierlein for fine announcing; to Don Marquis for those heart-reaching solos.

—to Joe Stern for months of work setting up the machinery to have all of the grounds outside the ring, in excellent order: signs, booths, parking areas, bleachers, boxes, chairs, flagpoles, tie areas, ETC. His job was stupendous as was his loyalty to M.H.A.

—to Joe's Committee, Bill Senecal, Herb Lombardi, Dave Jones, Jim Myers, Jerald Hansen, Burton Thomas, Giles Hunter, Glenn Fisher, Harry Peckham, Russ King, Jack Guillory, Jim Kacey, Charlie Spaatz, Charles Rezzaghi, Ray Hanneberg. At work all the time, these people didn't see the show.

—to Bud Vogel, Dan Danielson, Vi Vogel who headed Promotion and Tickets, much credit . . . they are still working . . . to Jerry and Jack Kerr, Ruth Lombardi, George and Mabel Hower, Martin Murray, Bobbye and Bill Lerschen, Ted and Agnes Hofer, Beverly Ludlum, Phyllis Barnard, Dottie and Lefty Bowers, Dutch and Harold Cummings, Mrs. Hollenbeck, Dusty Dale, Bob and June Camarco, Roger Farrar, Joe Merritt—all too busy selling tickets to see the show.

—to Nina Stern who sent 3 separate press releases, pictures and cuts to some 58 bay area papers; who secured photographers and collected window display materials used in H. C. Capwell's, Guy's Drug Store, and other firms; who arranged attendance of the Boys' Club, Crippled Children, Veterans; who arranged ticket tables downtown . . . —to the many out-of-town and neighborhood papers, especially the Montclairion, for space in their papers.

—to Mabel Smith, Mary Gale, Deane Burton, for selecting beautiful trophies; —to Elsa Himmelman and Virginia Patten for their gracious presentations; —to Bonny Hooper for handling armbands, and to Sandy and Susie Hooper for running errands all day.

—to Deane Burton for planning and arranging classes and events; —to Mary Gale for acting as Ring Clerk and for many additional jobs.

—to Dr. Millerick for acting as official veterinarian; —to Stony Pierce for hobbling up in a cast to act as official horse shoer.

—to Mr. and Mrs. Mack and their five children, Mary Jo, Sally Ann, Charlie, Billy, Cathy Irene (aged 8), and Elsa Himmelman, and the rest of those unlucky enough to get in on the basket-bucket brigade of rock-picker-uppers . . . thousands of rocks were hand-removed from the arena; —to Charles L. Hall for dragging the ring, wrestling with railroad ties, rocks, and tanbark.

—to Miss Cornelia Cress, Mary Lou Hansen and Shongehon; —to Captain Emmett Boger and the Aahmes Shrine Mounted Patrol; —to Jerald Hansen and the Metropolitan Juniors—for your very beautiful drill exhibitions.

—and last but not least, to our guardian angels Dave Jones, Joe Chapman, Pete Little and Martin Murray, members of the Finance Committee who see, hear, and know all that's coming in—and going out.

MOUNTED POLICE HORSE SHOW

With a large entry, the First Annual Horse Show sponsored by the Oakland Mounted Police on June 3, was a big success. Fred Bemis on Cap won the master trophy for the day, with the highest number of points. Nancy Luyendyk was a close second.

Feature events included exhibition of an Arabian horse by Mrs. Karemer, trick riding by Scotty and Sandy Black and Carol Armtrout, a square dance by the Boots and Jeans but Big Chief Sad Face, usually known as Walter Grondona, Jr., stole the show in the costume novelty class.

Charles L. Hall did a splendid job in managing and directing the show.

HAYWARD DIAMOND JUBILEE

Hayward's Diamond Jubilee on July 22 will feature a parade and horse show at the Hayward High School Grounds.

At 9:30 a. m. a Junior Division will offer classes in western and English equitation, stock horse—dry work, Jumpers, western and English pleasure horses. Starting at 1 p. m. the parade will offer trophies to best dressed mounted group, best western group, best novelty group, best fraternal group, best silver mounted outfit, and best dressed cowboy and cowgirl, junior cowboy and junior cowgirl.

Following the parade, the Open Division will have classes in jumpers, western and English pleasure horse classes, stock horses, matched pairs, hurry-scurry, parade horses, model stock horse shown in hand, working hunters. ENTRIES CLOSE JULY 15. (See ad, page 7).

JUNIOR NEWS SHIRT-MAKERS

Our publication can always have articles about worth-while activities of juniors and the latest accomplishment is in the shirt-making business. All of those beautiful royal blue shirts worn by the juniors at the Ninth Annual Horse Show, were made by the junior members.

In two weeks' time, Barbara Isham, Mary Ann McDonald, Shirlee Johnstad and Gray Gilbert, made 16 western shirts and had them ready for the drill team.

Congratulations.

HOPALONG CASSIDY PARADE

MORE TROPHIES

Traveling to San Anselmo to the Marin Mounted 4H Club Show in June, several juniors came home with awards. Miss Cornelia Cress kindly loaned the juniors her trailer.

Barbara Isham took second in equitation on Scooter; Pat Wirt on Toy took third on bareback equitation. Mary Ann McDonald and Shirley Johnstad missed out on the ribbons but each made a fine showing.

Thanks to our wonderful director, Jerry Hansen for transporting us to San Anselmo.

NEW OFFICERS

Appointed Captain by Director Jerry Hansen, Barbara Isham now leads the drill team. Dolores Doyas was elected first lieutenant; Mary Ann McDonald, second lieutenant.

WINNERS

Winning the junior membership drive by a length and receiving the coveted $35 order on Kelly's Western Shirt House, was Marjorie Tennant with 68 memberships to her credit.

Second prize, for 39 memberships, a $30 order on Earl Nanninga's Saddle Shop, goes to Susan Hooper, third for 25 memberships, a $27.50 order on The Broadway Sporting Goods Store, goes to Linda Pat-ten; fourth prize, for 15 memberships, a $15 order on Earl Nanninga's Saddle Shop, goes to Daisy Jo Smith.

Thanks, Juniors, for securing all these fine memberships for the MHA.

TIP TO TEEN-AGERS

HI Teen-agers! Have you tried horseback riding? If you haven't you've missed a lot of fun.

You don't have to go way off to the Sierras to enjoy the beauty of nature, the woods, the views . . . you can get it all right here in the Oakland hills.

While riding along the trails on your faithful horse, you get a feeling of freedom. There's nothing better than a horse to give you an understanding of animals, too.

So—why don't you come on the MHA trail rides and find out for yourself how much fun there really is in riding. It's a sport that no teen-ager should pass up. (Written by Gene Rocha).

ORGANIZATIONS

Footprinters took part in the San Rafael parade, the Oakland parade advertising pony rides, and went to Woodland for a rodeo and barn dance. At a barbecue in the Joseph Knowland park, 250 partook of Mel Coe's good food. All the Footprinters who attended George Daniels Day, send a special vote of thanks for a wonderful time. Johnny Owen on Little Jewel recently took some ribbons in Shasta County and now stables at Mountain Riding Club. Larry Domino of Cochran and Celli, has just joined the group.

Aahmes Shrine Rangers were glorious in their ride to the colors and their drill at the MHA show; they also appeared in the Hayward Rodeo Parade, the Oakland Police and MHA parade in Oakland.

The drill team welcomed Jack Marlin and Nelson Lewis, two enthusiastic new members and Past President Bill Ludolph, who is again riding with the group.

Following their showing at the Tri-Cities show at San Pablo, the group takes off for Pocatello and Idaho's Frontier Rodeo.

Alameda County Mounted Sheriff's Posse members, wives, a 30 piece band led by Bandmaster George E. Dowlen and aided by photogenic Drum Majorette Dolores Mugge, presented 3 drills at Reno in early July and without waiting to catch their breath, headed home to take part in the Alameda County Fair at Pleasanton where they put on an hour's program including grand entry with their band and drill team, drill, and specialty events by Scotty and Jimmy Black, Stan and Loretta Cosca.

AT THE STABLES

MOUNTAIN RIDING CLUB:

Boarders and guests enjoyed an early Sunday morning breakfast and trail ride on May 27. The excellent menu consisted of a choice of several fruit juices, bacon, eggs, pancakes, rolls, and coffee, ably prepared and served by Chef Johnny Owen and his assistant, Bill Barnard. Those participating were Lou and Ruth Conner, Ted and Caroline Bechtel and children, Evelyn Kerr, John Preston, Dell Owen, Peggy and Warren Cramer and children, Ed and Betty Lou Marquardt and children, Mr. and Mrs. Seely and children, Bob and Lynn Carroll, Mr. and Mrs. Devlin, Mrs. Barnard, Don Swan, Don Flanigan, Lew Schaackey, and hosts Burl and Lillian Tatum. A series of such breakfasts are being planned for the summer months.

Peggy and Warren Cramer's daughter Kathy recently acquired a Palomino gelding, Thunder. Lillian Tatum had a vacation in Pasadena.

PIEDMONT'S prominent visitors recently were Mr. and Mrs. Buster Ivory of rodeo fame. Kathy Ann and Linda Patten had a wonderful time playing with the three Ivory youngsters. . . Kathy Ann is already looking forward to joining the ranks of the mounted group along with Linda.

Arriving recently at Piedmont: Mrs. Spaich, Shell Laston, Don Huber; a colt, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Tom Shelton.

Best wishes for a speedy recovery to Beverly Adams, following an operation.

HIGHLAND STABLES folk are mighty proud of tiny Carol Armtrout, aged 4, who made two runs of the hippodrome stand in front of an audience after only two weeks of practice . . . "In My Merry Oldsmobile" is passe now that Ray Trimble has the hay rack working. King and Colonel, the matched team, are all excited over the hay rides too, or could it be that second prize they took at the Hayward parade?

In the strictest of training is Janet Stone's Cricket. "Patience," says Janet, "is all it takes". Gordon Lowry is walking around with that "gotta get a horse" look.

THANK YOU - 278 TIMES!

The two hundred and seventy eight who accepted the hospitality of George and Helen Daniels on May 30 all say "Thank You." It was the biggest turnout on the Daniels Day Trail Ride and Field Day to date.

Meeting at Sequoia Arena, the group witnessed the presentation of a tractor to the Oakland Park Department. Thanks to George Daniels and Joe Stern who made this gift possible, trail work will start in earnest according to William Penn Mott, Jr., Superintendent of Parks.

The trail ride, planned by Sidney Chown, was wonderful, and thanks to Richard Walpole, Manager, and the staff of Redwood Regional Park, and Wes Adams, the trails were in excellent condition. Many improvements had been completed at the race track area, too. While photographers, George Daniels and Robbie Robinson, Eastman Kodak and Federal Drug, waited at a scenic spot to photograph the riders, Alicia Coffey took a wrong turn. Cross-country rushed the photographers and caught the group later.

What a lunch! Such huge portions of chicken that melted in your mouth!

Miss Cornelia Cress planned the field events and secured the good-looking ribbons. Bill Patten and Jimmy Black acted as judges for western events; Lorraine Harris, for English. Bob Lorimer and Phyllis Hill acted as clerks.

Collecting memberships and registering riders were Gus and Elsa Himmelman, Bud and Vi Vogel, Mary Gale, Mabel Smith, Jack and Jerry Kerr, Kay Bennett, Martin Murray, Dutch and Harold Cummings. Dispensing liquid refreshments, was Sidney Chown.

John Macdonald, Director, East Bay Regional Parks, joined the horsemen for the first time and had a fine time.

Thanks to our good friend the Sun Electric Company for the sound equipment, to Ed Wise acting as disc jockey, and to Stan Cosca for his fine announcing.

Thanks again, Helen and George, for the best horsemen's event yet.

We didn't get all of the names but some of those who attended were:

DID YOU FORGET?

If you forgot to attend the Open Meeting on June 7, you missed one of the most beautiful horse films ever shown. "Free and Easy," the sound-color film about Tennessee Walkers was a treat and we are indebted to Mr. and Mrs. Hedges for securing the film.

William Penn Mott, Jr., Superintendent of the Oakland Park Department IS a horseman. . for some years he worked in the National Park Service going out for weeks at a time on a horse and leading a pack animal. He's probably spent more hours on a horse than many of us can boast about . . that's why he has a genuine good feeling for horses and horseback riders. At the Open Meeting he stated that trails solely for equestrian purposes, the building of stables near the arena, and the clubhouse on the hill, WILL be a reality. "Have faith and patience," he said, "this will all blossom forth some day."

Our thanks to Gus and Elsa Himmelman who served refreshments and to Robbie Robinson your Eastman Kodak dealer on Grand Avenue, who brought the sound equipment and showed the films.

Among those present at the meeting were: Messrs. and Mesdames Stern, Kerr, Crass, Himmelman, Collins, Hedges, Coffey; Mary Gale, Mabel Smith, Bonny Hooper, Noni and Joan Nichols, Nancy Hill, Laverne and Mrs. Gabrielson, Burton Thomas, Herb Lombardi, Mrs. Wandesford.
